Management REPORT

No. 52

January 7, 1954

SAFETY FREQUENCIES for 1953 and the previous year are almost identical, but in the over-all picture some improvements can be noted in the figures below.

	1953	1952
Frequency	4.32	4.31
No. of lost-time accidents	23	24
No. of slight accidents	396	479

We wish to thank the 232 departmental safety committee men and women who served with such efficiency during the year just ended and all others who by your interest and effort helped to prevent accidents to yourselves and your fellow-workers.

AN ARTICLE in January FORTUNE magazine entitled CROWN ZELLERBACH'S SECOND GROWTH occupies three double page spreads plus additional columns. It is illustrated with five beautiful color pictures, two of which were taken in the Camas plant. Nine black and white pictures feature other operations and some of the Corporation executives. Local magazine dealers do not have a supply of FORTUNE, but we managed to procure 20 copies from San Francisco which have been placed in the departmental offices throughout the plant. We believe you'll be interested in stopping to see the magazine. If you wish your own personal copy, you may leave your name at the magazine stands of the local drug stores, as they have hopes of getting a supply.

TWO EMPLOYEES retired on December 31. Nicolass Skamnias (Nick Skemas to his many friends) had service of 32.4 years. He first came to the mill from Greece in 1910. Later he went back to his home there, returning here to work continuously since 1923. At the time of his retirement he was employed as wasteman in No. 2 Finishing Room. Peter Schnell, completing 11.5 years of service, also retired on December 31. Coming in 1941 from Ontario, Canada, he was employed in the dock shipping department. He has already moved to the cottage near the entrance of J.D. Currie youth camp which he will occupy in exchange for his services as caretaker.

TWO OF OUR MEN have been promoted to positions with Waterways Terminals Co., Portland. John Roberts, formerly order department head assistant, becomes general manager, and Les Schatz, accounting department, is treasurer and office manager of the new company. The following item is quoted from a recent OREGONIAN account of the new project.

"Waterways Terminals company, which was formed by Crown Zellerbach Paper corporation to operate the Interstate and Ocean terminal properties on N. W. Front avenue, which the corporation is leasing for long periods, will take over the full operation of Interstate terminal January 1 and Ocean terminals April 30.

"The terminals will be used for the storage and distribution of paper products which will be taken to the terminals by barges from the Camas and West Linn mills and shipped out by rail and truck. To facilitate the handling of paper products, the new operator is building a third marine elevator on the face of house No. 3 of Interstate terminals.

"Waterways Terminals company has been operating a portion of Interstate Terminals since November 15, and for many years has stored and shipped paper through the terminal.

"The new company is headed by L. R. Gault, president, and J. D. Roberts, general manager. Gault is president of Western Transportation company, the river transportation subsidiary of Crown Zellerbach corporation, and Roberts is an ex-employe of the Camas mill. The company's office has been established at 1020 N. W. Front avenue, with a new phone number, AT 5183."
